Sarosh Mistry is Region Chair, North America, On-Site Services; Chair, Universities North America, On-Site Services and Chief Executive Officer, Home Care Services worldwide.

As Region Chair of North America, he leads all of Sodexo’s business activities from On-Site Services to Personal and Home Services (PHS), and Benefits and Rewards Services (BRS). His work includes leading the business units operating at more than 13,500 sites in the U.S. and Canada, including Healthcare, Education, Corporate Services, Sports & Leisure, Government, Senior Living and Energy & Resources. Additionally, Sarosh is the CEO of Sodexo Home Care Services Worldwide, an activity within the PHS segment, committed to providing home-based care solutions.

With $10.76B in annual revenues in the U.S. and Canada, Sodexo’s 160,000 employees in North America provide more than 100 unique services that improve performance at client sites. Sodexo is committed to supporting diversity and inclusion and safety, while upholding the highest standards of corporate responsibility and ethical business conduct.

Sarosh joined Sodexo in 2011 and has accepted new roles with greater scope of responsibility throughout his time with the organization. Prior to joining Sodexo, he held executive roles at Compass, Starbucks Coffee Company, Aramark and PepsiCo.

He moved to the United States from Mumbai when he was just 17 years old. Having earned a scholarship to St. John University in Minnesota, he completed his BA in Business Administration, and his MBA at the University of California. He is fluent in English and Hindi.

It is his personal priority to support organizations that provide professional resources and outlets to improve the lives of those who are struggling with mental illness or may not feel empowered to seek help and support. That is why he and his daughter co-founded a not-for-profit, Bundles of Care, which serves children who are in the foster care system and are likely dealing with the trauma of abuse, separation and emotional upheaval.

Sarosh is an active board member of SodexoMagic, a joint venture founded in 2006 between Magic Johnson Enterprises and Sodexo. SodexoMagic promotes social progress in underserved communities and empowers people to eat healthy food. In addition, he sits on the board of directors of Active Global Caregiver, an organization providing senior care services in Asia, Pronep Life Services, providing skilled care services in Brazil, and Didi Hirsch Mental Health Services, a provider of free mental health, substance use disorder and suicide prevention in California. He also is an active board member for Sodexo, Inc.—the board that oversees Sodexo’s business in North America.
